anticipation of trouble

WASHINGTON, July 9.—(Special Telegram.)—Uncle Sam is likely to have his hands full maintaining the peace of Central and South America.

The news of the success of Cypriano Castro in eluding the vigilance of the United States and landing in Venezuela and quickly rallying 10,000 fighting mountaineers to his standard came as a shock to the government.

When added to this is the fact that revolutionary feeling is running high in Cuba and Nicaragua, together with the unrest in Honduras, Mexico and Hayti, it may be seen that Secretary Knox has the prospect of a lively summer ahead, with work for Secretary Meyer of the navy and Secretary Stimson of the army.

The feeling is growing here that the time is not far distant when an actual protest backed by adequate military force will be necessary in all those Latin-American republics contiguous to the Panama canal.

This Venezuelan situation is immediately pressing.

Castro a Busy Man.

For weeks Castro, "The Stormy Petrel of South American politics" as he is known in diplomatic circles and "man of destiny," a self imposed title, has been playing a game of hide and seek with the gunboats of his own and other nations. He has been at various times reported in a score of places in the South Atlantic and the Caribbean sea, and even lately in New York.

For ten years he has ruled Venezuela with an iron hand and defied to more than one nation during that time.

Of his movements lately, it is known that he left Lisbon early in June, aboard a battleship purchased from the Italian government for the Haytian navy. It was reported that he had a large supply of munitions of war. For two weeks afterward his whereabouts was a mystery.

The next heard of him was in the Canary Islands, and finally, a week later, he landed at Port Du Paix, Hayti.

Now comes the news that he is at the head of a formidable force in Venezuela. That it means active hostilities is not doubted.

Evidences of revolutionary influences in Cuba has reached the war state and navy departments, and a watch is being maintained on the leaders.

If a revolution occurs, the United States will intervene and stay Cuba. The storm centers around Gomez, the president of the republic. He is assailed with charges of graft.

There are several aspirants for Gomez' place, but all of them are outside the pale of consideration by this government. Gomez' successor will be selected in Washington.

Situation in Cuba.

Guerra has written threatened to take the Cuban regular army into the field and start a revolution. He was brought to a halt by the United States, and in a letter to General Wood, promised to behave. He has since thoroughly organized his rustic soldiers and it is believed here many arms have been smuggled into the country by his agents.

Colonel Piedra, at one time chief of police of Havana, is "on the outs" with the Cuban president, and has threatened, according to reports here, to join with Guerra and Former Minister of Mexico, Loya, Castillo and combat Gomez for remonstration.

Another revolution is threatened in Nicaragua.
